

Name: _____

Class: _____ Date: _____

WW2 Essay Contest: Precious Conversation

Use this worksheet to prepare your key points for your essay contest entry.

1. Read “Essay Contest: Precious Conversation” (page 23, What’s Up April 2017), and the guiding questions and tips at the What’s Up students’ website ➤ <http://more.whatsup.sg/> . After your conversation, jot down essential information in the table below.

About my interviewee Name: _____ Birthdate: _____ Current age: ____ Relationship to me: _____	About the conversation Date: _____ Time: _____ Place: _____	My key takeaways:
What was the person doing here from 1942 to 1945?
Jot down key memories in point form here. You may also use the other side of this worksheet. The person’s memories of the Occupation years (1942-1945):

3. Draft your essay using what you have written here as well as your full notes from the conversations. When you are satisfied with your final draft, submit the essay to essay@whatsup.sg. Word limit: 400 words. Deadline: 30 May 2017

What’s Up is partnering the National Heritage Board to bring you these contests for the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Singapore.