We Shall Triumph

An extension of "London unites against terror attacks"

Terror attacks cause death and destruction. The victims are usually innocent people going about their daily lives. The attacks are intended to create fear in the hearts of people and to destroy the peace. If we understand this, we can defeat the terrorists.

INSTRUCTIONS

- a) Divide your class into five groups. On your own, read "London unites against terror attacks," (page 6, What's Up July 2017).
- b) In your groups, discuss and decide if the following statements are True or False. Circle T or F accordingly. If the statement is False, correct it below.

1.	The ISIS-backed March attack turned most Londoners against Muslims there.	T / F
2.	Though Muslims were attacked at Finsbury Park, they did not blame the other communities.	T / F
3.	Between March and June 2017, there were four terror attacks in London.	T / F
4.	After the attacks, Londoners were afraid and refused to carry on with their lives.	T / F
5.	Because of the attacks, most Londoners avoided their favourite places and stayed indoors out of fear.	T / F
6.	Londoners were deeply saddened by what these attacks did to the spirit of their lively city. But, they say they were not angry at the terrorists who did it.	T / F
7.	Londoners are now more aware of the danger of such attacks and are more alert.	T / F
8.	People of London believe that if they gave in to fear and changed their lifestyle, then the terrorists will succeed.	T / F
9.	The attitude of the Londoners caused them to triumph over the terrorists.	T / F

- c) In your groups discuss:
 - i. What have you learnt from Londoners' response to terror attacks?
 - ii. How is Singapore similar to London?
 - iii. How can we apply the lessons to Singapore?
- d) Present your findings to the rest of your class.
