

All in A Comic

An activity of "The most powerful woman in the world"

The life story of Germany's leader Angela Merkel is a very interesting one. It shows us what is possible when we have determination and patience. Capture this story in a comic strip and share it with your family and friends.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Form groups of three or four students. READ "The most powerful woman in the world" (page 18-19, What's Up October 2017). Visualise the events in your mind's eye.
2. Plan eight scenes of your comic strip before drawing it. To do this, pick any eight events that you think would come together to make a good story about Angela Merkel's life. Use this table to help you.

Scene	Where did this take place?	Who were in this scene?	What happens in this scene?	Who says what in this scene?

3. DRAW the comic on a sheet of poster paper. Use speech bubbles (  ) for the talking parts.
4. PRESENT your work to the class – show them the comic strip and read the dialogue and captions aloud to tell this wonderful story.
