All Creatures Big & Small

An extension of "Farewell, Inuka"

Read "Farewell, Inuka" (page 10-11, What's Up May 2018). This heart-warming story shows us that wildlife that is very well cared for at the Singapore Zoo. Although Singapore is such a small island, we have a rich diversity of living things around us. Many of these are tiny insects, amphibians, and reptiles. They may not seem as lovable as the bears, elephants, giraffes and other zoo favourites. Yet, if we say we love nature, then we should be caring towards all creatures. Sadly, some people are not. Take a moment to jot down, in point form, ways in which you have seen kids or even adults being cruel. Shares your ideas for change.

	Common creatures	Examples of cruel acts by some kids	How can we change these people's attitudes?
1	harmless spiders	e.g. Captured and used in spider fights till one dies.
