Phrasal Verbs

An extension of "India's floating clinics"

A phrasal verb is made up of a main verb with one or two prepositions, that together conveys a meaning. For example, "come in" is a phrasal verb meaning "enter". Read "India's floating clinics" (page 9, What's Up June 2018) and find the phrasal verbs used in the paragraphs listed below. Some paragraphs have more than one phrasal verb. The first one has been found for you. Write an original sentence for each phrasal verb.
