How Did That Happen?

An extension of "A Rohingya family's story"

In "A Rohingya family's story" (page 8, What's Up July 2018), a Rohingya family speaks about the difficulties they have faced over the years. First, read the article. Then, write down the reasons behind the situations they are in. The first one has been done as an example.

No.	Situation	Why?
1	Gul Zahar and her family fled to Bangladesh last August.	The village of Gul Zahar's family was torched in a deadly attack.
2	The family faced deep repression and social exclusion in Myanmar.
3	The family lived a hand-to-mouth existence in Myanmar.
4	Ayesha Begum was unable to seek health care when she was pregnant.
5	Mohammad Ayub could not contribute to civic life in Myanmar.
6	Mohammad Siddiq cannot read or write.
7	Gul Zahar wants to return to Myanmar.
