

Open Letter to NParks

An extension of "Planting trees to fight climate change"

1. Read "Planting trees to fight climate change" (page 10, What's Up September 2018).
2. Discuss your reactions to the article in pairs. Brainstorm, together, about how Singapore can help the world to fight climate change. Use the space below to record useful points in your discussion.

3. Write an open letter to NParks. Describe the state of deforestation and tree-planting in the world today. Suggest ways that Singapore can do more to help our planet. If you would like to email your letter to NParks, get permission from your parent/guardian first. Then, send your email to www.nparks.gov.sg/feedback.
4. You may even want to drop them a message on Instagram at @nparksbuzz!
