

The A-Bee-C Connexion

An activity of "Saving the bees"

Read "Saving the bees" (page 19, What's Up September 2019) carefully. Then, work in pairs. In the "Link Word" column below, fill in the terms that match the "Meaning" column's descriptions.

	Meaning	Link Word
1.	Change in weather patterns due to global warming.	c _ _ _ _ c _ _ _ _
2.	Animals of the same type, such as ants, living together in a community with hierarchical social structure.	c _ _ _ _ _
3.	A biological community of the living organisms interacting with each other and their surroundings within a given space.	e _ _ _ _ _ m
4.	The surroundings in which living things live and operate in.	e _ _ _ _ _ t
5.	When a certain kind of living thing disappears from the face of the planet.	e _ _ _ _ _ n
6.	Animals that have hair or fur on their bodies and usually give birth to live young.	m _ _ _ _ s
7.	The sugar-rich fluid produced by flowers.	n _ _ _ _ r
8.	Nourishment that help living things grow.	n _ _ _ _ _ n
9.	Farmed without using synthetic fertilisers and pesticides.	o _ _ _ _ c
10.	To create offspring, to ensure continuity of its own kind.	r _ _ _ _ _ e
11.	A group of living organisms of the same kind, capable of mating with one another to reproduce.	s _ _ _ _ s
12.	The male part of a flower that consists of the pollen-bearing anther and a stalk-like filament.	s _ _ _ _ n
13.	The connecting tube between the stigma and the ovary, through which a pollen tube grows.	s _ _ _ e
14.	A word that means very poisonous.	t _ _ _ c

- Use all the 14 link words from the table above to form a chain. Do this such that the first letter of each link word is the same as the last letter of the word before it.
e.g. habitats – stigma - anther-....