

Name: _____

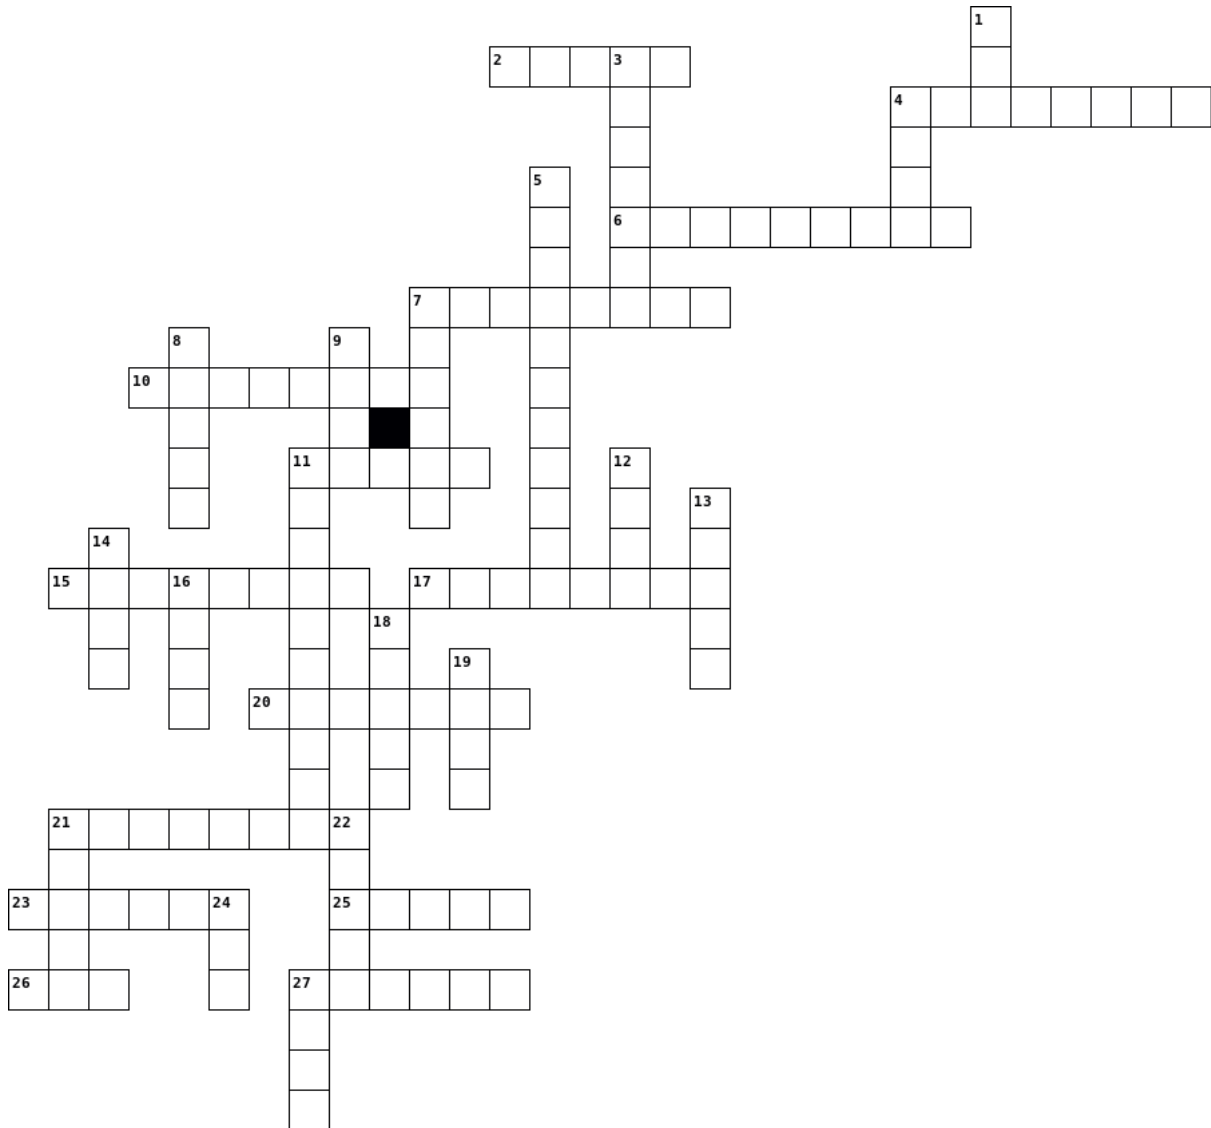

Class: _____ Date: _____

Golden Eggs Crossword

An activity of "Founder of Microsoft quits to focus on charity"

The fable of the goose that lays golden eggs aptly describes how the Gates Foundation can give away so much money and still have more. Read Story 6 of What's Up April 2020 to find out how this is possible. Bill and Melinda Gates also put in a lot of effort to make sure their huge donations are being used in the best ways possible.

Do this crossword puzzle to test your understanding of this billionaire couple's approach to charitable giving and what they aim to achieve for the world. Fill in the easy ones first. Return to the rest when some of their letters have been provided by other answers.

Across

2. In this story's photos, everyone looks it!
4. Software like Word, PowerPoint, and Excel.
6. For a foundation, the fairy-tale goose.
7. Cholera, malaria, and tuberculosis.
10. Instead of cash, can give time or stuff.
11. Always a hundred in a dollar.
15. Malaria can spread as quickly.
17. The golden eggs from a huge endowment.
20. The Foundation's Enemy Number One.
21. Those who receive the grants.
23. Bill was one of Microsoft's first.
25. When you gain new knowledge.
26. Sleep under it to keep mozzies out.
27. The Foundation's focus in poor places.

Down

1. A key international health agency.
3. Billionaires have very deep ones.
4. Without one, money won't help as much.
5. With it, mosquito nets are ultra-effective.
7. The Gates investigate before they do it.
8. Going all the way to study problems.
9. So many zeroes in a billion.
11. The meaning of philanthropic.
12. The net in the photo is not red or green.
13. Bill and Melinda's foundation.
14. One of the world's richest people.
16. Just one in an ocean won't make waves.
18. Rich or not, give with a big one.
19. Below this age, Malaria hits hard.
21. Wouldn't you love one laying golden eggs?
22. Good solutions do this to problems.
24. The number of zeroes in a million.
27. Million, billion — both far from tiny!