

Find the Antonyms

An activity of "Ancient snack bar reopens"

Can you imagine snack bars serving fast-food on the streets of ancient Rome? Read "Ancient snack bar reopens" (page 16, What's Up September 2021) to find out more about this fascinating aspect of early Roman life.

- Column C of the table below lists the opposites (antonyms) of a list of words found in the story. Column A lists the page's columns from where the words are taken.
- In pairs, search the article carefully for the word that is the opposite of the given antonym. Write it in Column B. An example is given.

	A. Column	B. The Word	C. Its Antonym
1	1		concealment
2	1		unremarkable
3	1		genuine
4	1		dull
5	1		hidden
6	2		careless
7	2		begun
8	2		pass by or miss
9	2		rare
10	2	ancient	modern
11	2		least important
12	2		rural
13	3		destroyed
14	3		the whole
15	3		made very clear
16	4		encode
17	4		unable to make out
18	4		vendors
19	4		different
20	4		friendly

- Pick any three pairs of words from this list. With each pair, form an original sentence. This means every sentence will have a word and its antonym in it.