

Name: _____

Class: _____ Date: _____

Product Comparison

An activity of "How local food favourites became part of our Lunar New Year tradition"

The article, "How local food favourites became part of our Lunar New Year tradition" (page 16, What's Up February 2022), tells us about three food items that are part of celebrating Lunar New Year in Singapore. Read it carefully.

1. Fill in the following tables with answers from the article.
2. With the information in your table, create an infographic comparing at least two items. Use Canva's free infographic maker at <https://www.canva.com/create/infographics>. (Don't know how to start? Search for "comparison infographics" under the "Templates" section.)
3. Download and save your infographic as an image file. Insert it into a PowerPoint slide and share the slide with your class.

	Pineapple tart	Yu sheng	Bak kwa
What is the item like?
Who created it and when?
How did it evolve over the years?
Why is it a local Lunar New Year tradition?			