

Tee & Boba Make Me Think!

An activity of "Tee & Boba" comic strips

Hamsters Tee and Boba are adorable classroom pets at a local school. Their antics make us laugh. But, there is more. In every comic strip, artist Linda Yew gives us food for thought. Take, for instance, these two strips in the March and April 2022 What's Up issues. To help you to answer the third question below, read "He designed cooler classrooms and better schools" (page 14–15, What's Up April 2022).

Read these comic strips in the March and April issues of What's Up. 2. Tee and Boba come to very different conclusions after their adventures. In the first story, they end with: "When two are better than one." In the second story, they end with: "When two feel like a crowd." <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What evidence is there in the first story that two are better than one? • In the second story, why do they say that two can feel like a crowd? • If you were an architect like Diébédo Francis Kéré, what would you design to make Tee and Boba more comfortable? 	WHEN TWO FEELS LIKE A CROWD...
