Commemorative Stamp “We Did It Together!”

An activity of “A snapshot of Shanghai under lockdown”

Read “A snapshot of Shanghai under lockdown” (page 10, What’s Up May 2022). In the article, the writer provides a snapshot of how her neighborhood community battled the COVID pandemic together in Shanghai. Design a postage stamp to capture a snapshot of your personal experience of the pandemic here in Singapore.

1. Reflect on how you survived the pandemic in your community by filling in the following table. Jot down your points in phrases. When completed, this table gives you a snapshot of what the pandemic meant to you.

	My Family	My School	My Neighborhood
a) Unforgettable moments and things we did together in the midst of the pandemic
b) People to whom I am grateful for what they did during the pandemic. Explain why.
c) Some good that came out of the pandemic for me

2. Watch this video to learn about commemorative stamps and how to make one.

4. Write a short description about your commemorative stamp to explain the meaning and inspiration behind the design.
