

Name: _____

Class: _____ Date: _____

Alike Yet Different Two Wartime Child Diarists

An activity of "The diary of a young Ukrainian refugee"

Writing a diary can help us to deal with hard times. It can also capture joyful memories.

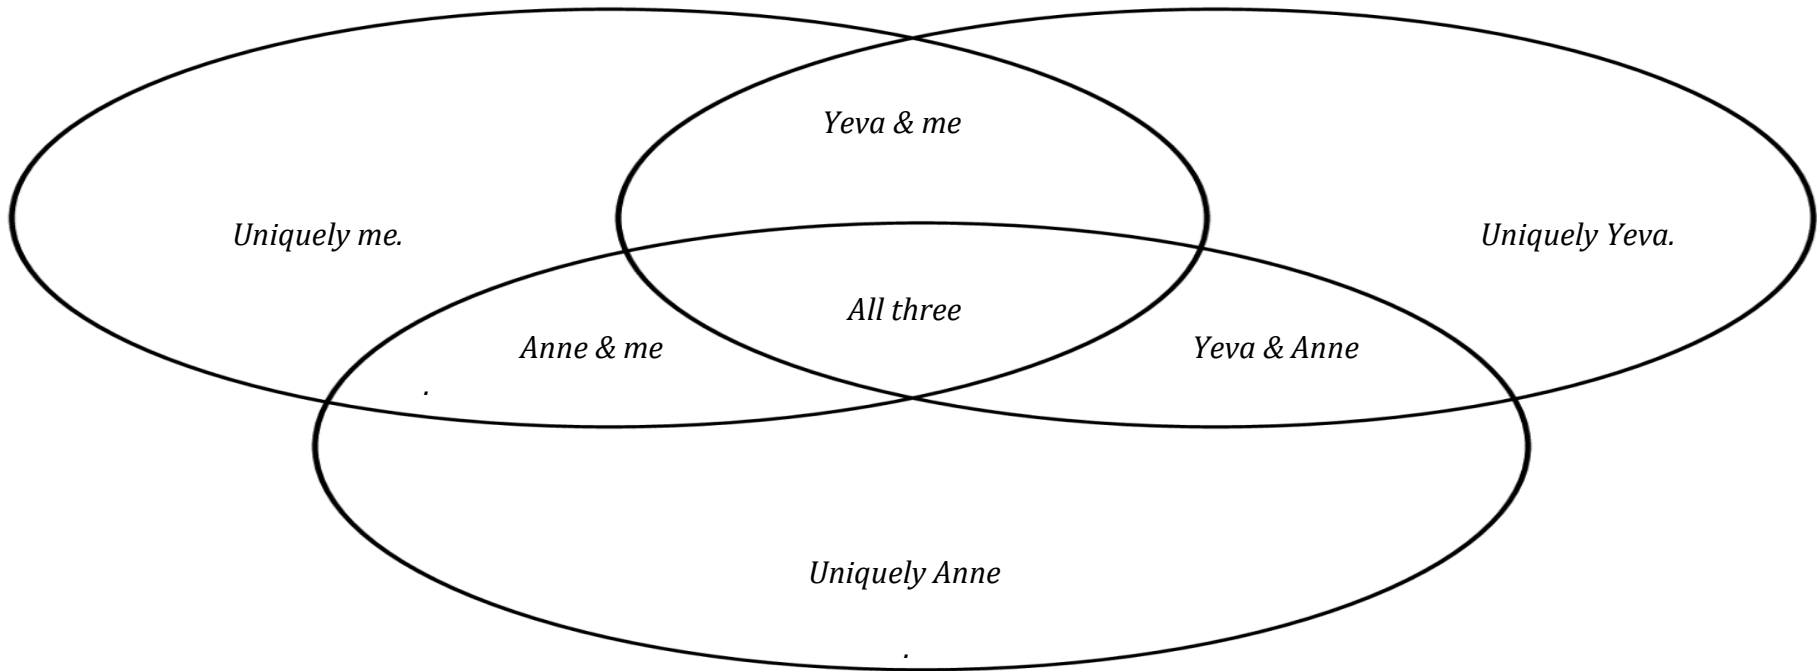

Let's look at two girls, Yeva Skalietska and Anne Frank, whose wartime diaries are now a valuable contribution to history. What do these two girls have in common? In what ways are they different from each other?

Do you think you have a couple of things in common with these two kids? Think about how you are different as well.

1. Read "The diary of a young Ukrainian refugee" (page 11, What's Up March 2023) to learn about Yeva Skalietska.
2. To get information about Anne Frank, watch the video: Who was Anne Frank?
➤ <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7o8jSbCanv0>
Anne Frank House (5 September 2019)
3. Jot down the points about each child in this table ↓.

Prompts	About Yeva Skalietska	About Anne Frank
Who was she? Which war was taking place? When did she write her diary? Was she able to see her diary published as a book? Any other facts about each.

4. Transfer relevant points from the table above to this Venn diagram. Add corresponding points about yourself. If you need more space, present your Venn diagram on a fresh sheet of paper.

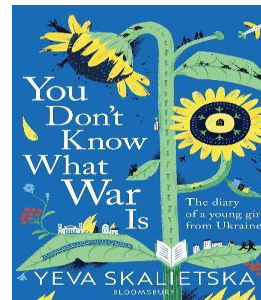

5. Share your Venn diagram with your class. Talk about what this activity did for you.

6. Consider reading their books soon! Both books are available at NLB libraries.

You Don't Know What War Is: The Diary of a Young Girl From Ukraine

by Yeva Skalietska

Anne Frank: The diary of a young girl

By Anne Frank

