Make New Paper with Old

An activity of "My Stuff: Foolscap Paper".

Read "My Stuff: Foolscap Paper" (page 16, What's Up April 2023). The article describes traditional and modern ways of making paper. Would you like to try your hand at manual papermaking? Better still, do it by recycling old paper. Work in small groups on this project.

1a) Watch the following video to see how paper is traditionally made in a region in India:

b) Follow the steps in the video. Work in small groups to make your own paper from old newsprint paper. When the paper sheets are dry, you can cut them into bookmarks for group members.

Materials you will need:

- Old newspaper sheets
- A couple of plastic bottles
- Water (preferably warm)
- A rolling pin (optional)
- Dried flowers (optional)
- A tray (to shape and hold the pulp)
- Two sheets of cloth (to press the paper)
- A clean, absorbent rag (for absorbing excess water)
