

More About Our Orang Laut

An activity of "Keeping the Orang Laut Culture Alive".

Read the article, "Keeping the Orang Laut culture alive (page 20, What's Up May 2025). Then, create a paper boat-and-fish display to celebrate your learning about our local indigenous culture.

1. Go to this website. Read the stories and browse through this website:
Orang Laut ➤ <https://oranglaut.sg/> (©2020 Orang Laut)
2. Based on the What's Up article and the website, write or draw about any of the following:
 - A fact you learned about the Orang Laut
 - A dish you now associate with the Orang Laut
 - A traditional item you associate with the Orang Laut
 - A word that captures the Orang Laut spirit
 - Your hope or wish for the Orang Laut.

3. Next, make a paper boat. Follow the steps in this video:

Learn How to Make an EASY PAPER BOAT That Floats Really Well

➤ <https://youtu.be/ekM4I7TNot0?feature=shared> (Easy Origami and Crafts, 16 Apr 2024)

4. Cut out the fishes above and place them in or around your paper boat.
5. Create a display in your classroom by bringing together everyone's paper boats and fishes. You may wish to use a notice-board for your display or even assemble a mobile of boats and fishes. Let this display remind us of the Orang Laut's traditional way of life.