

Vocab Builder

An activity of "Lawrence Wong gets the people's permission..."

- Read these two stories in the May 2025 issue of What's Up:
 - "Lawrence Wong gets the people's permission to continue as PM (page 1 & 28)
 - "How a South Korean president lost his job" (page 6).
- Then, look for the phrases below in the stories. See how they are used by the writers. Next, construct your own new sentences using them in different contexts.

SENTENCE CONSTRUCTION

1	"duty to the public" My new sentence using these words:
2	"promised to serve" My new sentence using these words:
3	"every election" My new sentence using these words:
4	"seats in Parliament" My new sentence using these words:
5	"try to persuade voters" My new sentence using these words:
6	"to help people" My new sentence using these words:
7	"prided itself on its freedoms" My new sentence using these words:
8	"the resilience of this young democracy" My new sentence using these words: