

Name: _____

Class: _____ Date: _____

A Guide to Peaceful Rides

An activity of "Tee and Boba".

Read "Countries want peace, so why do some fight?" (page 9, What's Up February 2026). This article gets us thinking about importance of making peace. Next, read "Tee and Boba" on the back cover of the same issue. In the comic, Tee and Boba follow an unspoken Singapore rule. Sometimes, these rules are a little funny, but they seem to work. Let's discuss some of Singapore's "unspoken rules" and turn it into a helpful guide for travelling on public transport.

1. Below are three starter lists of common good habits Singaporeans follow when using public transport. In small groups, read the examples and add two more tips for each.

At Bus Stops

(Waiting habits, how to signal for the right bus, what to avoid doing, etc)

- Check the bus routes guide to make sure you are at the right bus stop.
-
-

On Buses

(Boarding and alighting habits, seat etiquette, what to avoid doing, noise and space awareness, etc)

- Tap your card quickly on the reader and move in.
-
-

At MRT Stations and on Trains

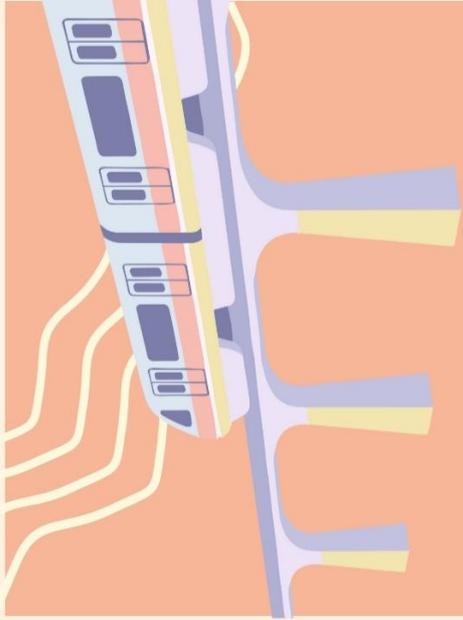

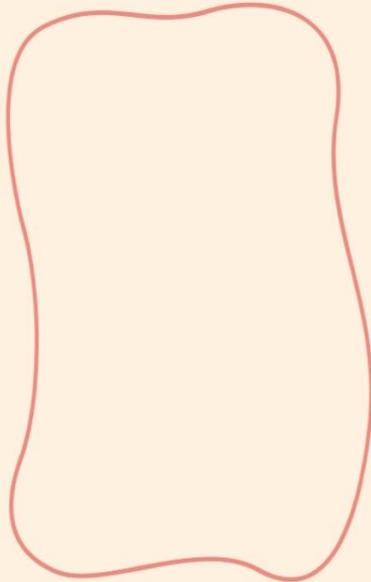

(Waiting habits, boarding and alighting habits, seat etiquette, noise and space awareness, what to avoid doing, etc)

- Stand on the left side of escalators.
-
-

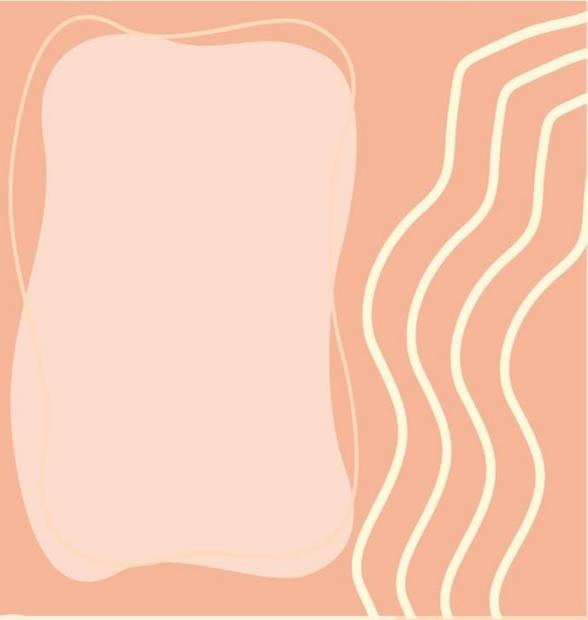

2. Fill in the brochure template on the next two pages. Use your tips above and add more details

Why these rules matter:

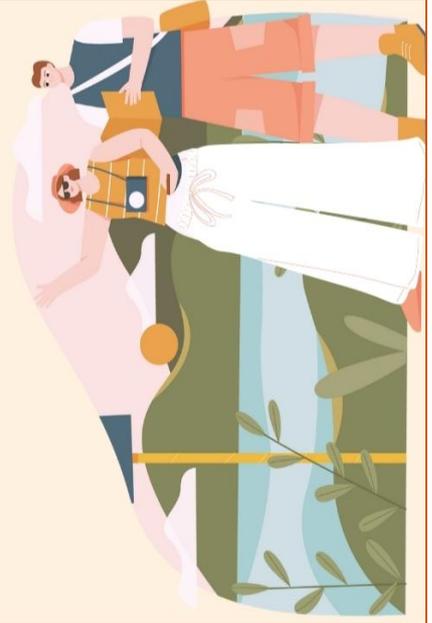

Insider Tip from a local:

Enjoy Singapore's Transport!

UNSPOKEN RULES EVERY VISITOR SHOULD KNOW

The Unspoken Do's and Don't's

At Bus Stops

On Buses

At MRT Stations & On Trains

