

Name: _____

Class: _____ Date: _____

Vocab Builder with Metaphors

An activity of "Let metaphors speak for you"

Read "Let metaphors speak for you" (page 25, What's Up September 2026). Then, locate the following metaphors in the story. Examine how they are used in the examples to understand what they mean. Next, construct your own new sentences using them in different contexts. Have fun by being creative!

SENTENCE CONSTRUCTION

1	"butterflies in your stomach" My new sentence using these words:
2	"the temple of science" My new sentence using these words:
3	"a snail with nowhere to go" My new sentence using these words:
4	"is Santa Claus" My new sentence using these words:
5	"tame your messy mop" My new sentence using these words:
6	"encircles the world" My new sentence using these words:
7	"preview of life's coming attractions" My new sentence using these words:
8	"If A is success in life, then $A = x + y + z$" My new sentence using these words: